they said the FBI and CIA assured Smith he would be protected if he told them how he passed information.

Smith said his intent was to give the Soviets outdated and unimportant bits of information as a way of becoming a double agent for the United States, the attorneys said. They said he devised that plan to help the FBI and CIA catch Soviet spies.

"I'm just as loyal as anybody in the Justice Department," Richard Craig Smith said Tuesday after family and friends raised $509,250 from real estate collateral and bank letters of credit to post his $500,000 bond.

Smith, 40, of Bellevue, Wash., must report to federal marshals daily by telephone while staying with friends in McLean, Va., a suburb of the nation's capital. His trial is scheduled for July 9.

Smith had been held in the Fairfax County, Va., jail since April 4, when he surrendered to FBI agents at Dulles International Airport. He left the federal courthouse in Alexandria, where he signed the bond papers, accompanied by his brother, Hyrum, a pilot, and one of his attorneys, William B. Cummings.

Crash injures teen

A Moss Point teen-ager was injured about 8:20 a.m. Tuesday when a garbage truck backed into the car in which he was a passenger.

Derek Johnson, 17, 4604 Parkinson Ave., was released from Singing River Hospital after emergency room treatment. He was riding in a car driven by his father, William E. Johnson, 35, according to Patrolman William Mars.

Mars said the Johnson vehicle was stopped on Gregory Street behind a Browning-Ferris Industries truck. The officer said the truck started to back up to 6619 Gregory and backed into the Johnson vehicle.

Driver of the truck was Ronald L. Saujon, 25, 13500 Lelia St., Ocean Springs.

Damage to the car was estimated at $200.

Women charged with wallet

Two women have been charged with petit larceny in connection with the theft of a wallet at Lakeside Manor in Pascagoula Tuesday.

Lisa Smith, 19, and Jackie Fairs, 20, both residents of Lakeside Manor, were arrested by Pascagoula police shortly after the incident.

According to report of Lt. Jimmy McCool, Leonard Parker, 81, 4130 Magnolia St., Moss Point, told officers the two women had stopped him in Moss Point and taken them to Parker told arrived at the two women their apartment in the apartment, they wallet and ran McCool said $67 cash was
